Preamble:

India is the second largest producer of cotton after China in the world. Similarly, Gujarat is one of the largest grower of cotton in the country and hence presents very large scope of developing the whole textile value chain from Farm to Fiber to Fabrics to Fashion to Foreign. The State possesses a strong industrial base and pool of resources to serve the entire value chain of the Textile Industry.

Keeping in view the above scenario, the State Government had introduced the Gujarat Textile Policy 2012 with the integrated approach to strengthen the entire Textile value chain. The Textile Policy 2012 is a great success and it brought in huge amount of investment and generated big number of employment.

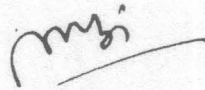

IC
The Gujarat Textile Policy 2012 is going to end on 04.09.2017. The State Government has received various representations from the units as well as the other stake holders to extend the Textile Policy. On the other hand the State Government has reviewed the impact of Gujarat Textile Policy 2012 and it showed that the Gujarat Textile Policy 2012 was very effective in terms of bringing in the investment as well as generating the employment especially in the rural areas and also strengthening the entire value chain of Textile Industry.

Resolution:

After careful consideration the State Government has decided to extend the Gujarat Textile Policy 2012 for further one year effective from 04.09.2017 to 03.09.2018. All the scheme Incentives, Terms and Conditions of the Gujarat Textile Policy 2012 (G.R. No. TEX/102012/65117/T, Dt. 25/6/2013) will remain the same.

This is issued with the approval of Government.
